

Emi Meyer Lyrics

« Winter Heron »

*Will you ever find out how perfect you are Wise beyond your years untouched by fears
Can I kidnap a kiss seal you up like this Forever forever and ever away*

*Winter heavens may blow houses row by row
Watch our innocence go Through the window*

*If we ever look back on the loving we had
Fortune sews the land like a mothers hand
While the seasons hang on to a merry-go-round
Forever forever forever unwound*

Watch our innocents go past the window*

*Cranes arch their wings herons dip and sing
Where do creatures that fly go to brave the night*

*Cranes arch their wings herons dip and sing
When do creatures that fly learn to say goodbye*
